The Daily Standard. Trade and Commerce of the Dominion.

We received by mail per steamship Prince Alfred on Tuesday reports of various departments which had been laid before the Parliament at Ottows and way.

We have not the partment to previous the past year, and give a better idea of the rapidly increasing prosperity of the country, then could be obtained in any other than the partment at Ottows and way.

We have not the partment to prevent the past year and year. Friday, May 17, 1872. before the Parliament at Ottawa, and from them may be gathered an idea of the rapid strides the Dominion is making in commercial prosperity, manufacturing development, and financial success. According to the census of 1871, the total population of British America was 3.817.213. For the fiscal year ending 3,817,213. For the fiscal year ending 3,811,218. For the fiscal year ending 30th June last, the imports were $96,-052,971; the exports $74,173,618; the the total trade being $170,266,589. In 1850 the total trade amounted to $29,-704,497; in 1860. $68,955,093; and in 1870 to $148,387,820. The revenue of the last final trade amounted to $10,000. the last fiscal year was $19,054,238; the expenditure, $15,640,256; showing a surplus for the year of $3,413,982. The revenue of 1871 shows an increase over the revenue of 1870 of nearly 28 per cent. The net debt of the Dominion is $78,209,742, incurred chiefly in the construction of public works; the annual interest on the debt, $4,854,692, being at the rate of 5,56 per cent. The debt now amounts to $21.86 per head of the population, the annual interest to $1.21 per head. The paid up capital and deposits of the chartered banks of the nion on the 30th Jone last amounted to $92,178,276, the paid up capital being $86,415,210, and the deposits $55,768,-066 The increase in the paid-up capital in ten years has been nearly 40 per cent; in deposits over 175 per cen'. We are sure these figures will be read with a degree of pleasure by every true friend of the Dominion, indicating, as they do, the remarkable progress the country has made in material wealth during the past few years, and pointing to the glorious future that awaits her in the years to come, when the vast fertile regions of the great North-West shall be n ilized by the grand army of immigrants who are even now casting their eyes toward that "promised land," as the central point of hope and happiness, and when that land, together with our own, shall constitute the great arterial high way over which the commerce of the old world will be borne on its way to the busy marts of the new. These returns will, we sincerely trust, dispel the delasion under which some of our own citizens have labored for years past to the effect that Canada is a poor, miserable, non-progressive dependency of Great Britain, whose inhabitunts are ekeing out a kind of miserable existence, dissatisfied with their lot, envious of the success of their republican neighbors, and longing for that kind of independence that would conduct them from the paternal care of John Bul. to the kind embraces of Brother LIFE ASSURANC Jonathan. The real truth is, that in trade, commerce, manufactures, agriculture, and the development of her internal resources, combined with a sound fiscal policy, reckoning upou a basis of popula-Canada excels any single State of the American Union, and we believe we might say the whole Union combined and is whiled the lightest taxed country on the face of the globe. These are facts that should be widely circulated, as we have no doubt they will be, throughout those districts of England and elsewhere on the European Continent, whence the Government of the Dominion expect to draw supplies of immigrants. The report of the Muster of Inland Revenue for the 30 h of June, 1871, is before us, and from it we gather the following interesting figures : The revenue for the year amounted to $5,120,647; the cost of collecting being $174 504, or less than 31 per cent, on the amount collected. The increase in the revenue over that of the preceding year is $718,188, or 162 per cent. Of this lucrease, $626,920 are due to Excise, being an increase of 17 per cent. on that branch of the revenue, $35.536.0 public works, being an increase of 61 per cent, and $47,979 to bill stamps an increase of 85 per cent. over the revenue derived from the same source in 1869 To. There has been a decrease in the receipts for culling lumber of $3,247 or 5 per cent.; but for the first time in many years the revenue from that branch has exceeded the expenditure The quantity of spirits on which duty was collected during the year was 4,219,245 pruof gallons, being an increase over 1870 of 408,217 gailons and over 1869 of 1,408,-217 galions and over. Duty was collected on 27,671,457 lbs. of malt; and on 6,795,611 lbs, of tobacco, snuff and cigara Duty was collected on 4,437,709 gallons of petroleum, being an increase of 819,864 gallous over the quantity in 1868-69. The quantity of spirits in warehouse on the 30th June last was 1,486,546 gallons; the quantity export-ed during the year was 271,332 gallons showing a falling off of 36,805 gallous as compared with the previous year, and 15,566 gallons as compared with 1868-9. The quantity of warchoused malt on the 30th June last was 9,782,518, on the 1st July, 1870, 10,864,430 lbs., showing that the demand last year was in excess of the production. The quantity exported in 1870-1 was 6,524,850 lbs. against 5,573,119 lbs. exported the previous ear, or an increase of nearly 20 per cent. In 1870-1 5.531,780 gallons of petroleum were exported, against 5,274,098 gallons during the previous year, and 758,060 gallons in 1868-9. The demand for home consumption during the past year increased about twenty-two and a half per cent., the demand for exportation less than five per cent- Of manufactures in bond, principally vinegar and methylated spirits, duty was collected on 692,—826 gallons. The canal business tast S26 gailons. The canal business that year was the largest ever done. The number of vessels that passed through the canals last year was 42,782, compared the canals last year was 42,782, compared in the Boomerang up to $7. LOAN SOCIETIES.—The annual return of loan societies in England gives an abstract of the lished shows an excess of expenditures for accounts of 531 for the year 1870. At the end the fiscal year. The budget proposes to tax of that year they had 34,882 members, and sums amounting to £400,712 were in borrowers' hands. In the course of the year there had been 144,489 applications for loans, and as many as 135 933 loans were made. Sums as many as 135 933 loans were made. Sums amounting to £8,696 were received forms of application and for inquiry, and £31,589 for interest; the expenses of management were £17,678; the net profit is returned at £19,958. Many of the societies return some loss in the year, the aggregate of losses being £1,812. It appears that 9,809 summonses were issued in the tear for sums amounting to £21,138; and there were 2,137 distress warrants; £16,957 was recovered. Costs to the amount of £2,498 were incurred in recovering, and £2,076 was paid by borrowers, or sureties, for costs. The societies are chiefly found in the metropolis and in Lancashire and Yorkshire. Many have but a small capital to lend, but Marchester has a loan society with £4,900 in borrowers' hands. Bolton has one with £11,006, Birmingham one with £15,674 lent out when the year closed.

The American Government firmly persists in the presentation of claims for consequential damages as the only practicable method of securing a settlement of some international principal clearly showing the responsibility of neutrals. England is becoming antisfied that the treaty will fail, unless it submits its case to the Geneva Board. She has made new advances for compromise under which her punctillio and our principle may be saved. This manifestation of anxiety for a satisfactory adjustment promises probable success, but the matter is insufficiently advanced yet for a clearer disclosure.

DR. CHING FUN-A CARD-EPITOR STANDARD:—Through the medium of your paper I want to state the very great good that has over done me by Dr. Ching Fun of this city, nace door Kwong Lee & Co. For 24 years I suffered with neuralgia on the brain, which buffled the skull of three first-class American physicians. Latterny bronchitis attacked my right lung, and my sy c becan whilly inflamed. Despairing of ever beingrued I proced myself as a lest reright tung, and my sy c becan wfully inflamed. Despairing of ever being rued I p ced myself as a last resort in the hands of Dr. (hing Fun, and after five months treatment I am a well man and feel that I cannot sound the eminent Chinese gentleman's praises too loudly, of that all my countrymen similarly affected may visit and find relief, Respectfully,
